

Please leave New Jersey's Do Not Call laws alone.
It's been rather nice not having my phone ring each and every night with unwanted calls.
As an american, I have the right to privacy in my own home, and that right should include my personal telephone.
Thank you.